

2017 PAC-12 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Post-Game Notes

GAME 4: #6 Oregon (70), #11 Arizona (63)

Thursday, March 2, 2017

Oregon will play #3 Washington tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. The Huskies hold a 3-2 advantage over the Ducks in Tournament games. Washington won at Oregon 99-77 in the only game the teams faced off this season.

Oregon now has a 1-3 record against Arizona in Tournament games.

The #6 seed has now won 3 of the 6 times it has played the #11 seed. Last season, the teams also met in a #6 (Oregon) vs. #11 (Arizona) Tournament game. (Arizona: 74-68)

The higher seeded teams won all four Tournament games today.

Oregon broke a 9 game Tournament losing streak (won first round game in 2008, but lost in quarterfinals).

Oregon's freshmen had big games. Oregon's Sabrina Ionescu, the conference's freshman of the year, scored in double digits for the 22nd time in 27 games (5th time with 20+ points). Pac-12 All-Freshman player Ruthy Hebard recorded her 5th 20+ point game and her 10th double-double. Mallory McGwire also scored in double figures (11th of season).

Arizona's Lucia Alonso scored in double figures for the first time in 17 games (6th overall this season), by the 2:14 mark of the 2nd quarter. LaBrittney Jones joined her with 2 FT's at 1:23 to go in the quarter (25th 10+ point game of the season). Jones went on to post her 9th 20+ point game of the season. Malena Washington scored in double figures for the 23rd time this season.)
