Post-Game Notes

GAME 1: #6 Arizona State (76), #11 Arizona (47)
Thursday, March 1, 2018

ASU will play #3 Oregon State tomorrow night at 8:30. The Sun Devils are 2-0 vs. the Beavers in previous Tournament games. OSU won both regular season games between the two teams.

The Sun Devils are now 3-0 in Tournament games vs. its in-state rival.

The Sun Devils outrebounded the Wildcats 33-19. The 19 Arizona boards were the fewest in a Tournament game (20, California vs. Washington, Mar. 13, 2009).

ASU shot a season best .569 (33-58), bettering its previous best of .556 (30-54) on 2/16 also against Arizona.

ASU held the Wildcats scoreless for the first 6:18 of the game to take an early 13-0 lead.

ASU's Kiara Russell equaled her career best for assists with 9 (3rd time, last vs. Arkansas on 12/21/17).

The Sun Devils' 29 point margin of victory was the 2nd most in a first round game (39, OSU 77 – WSU 38, 2006) and tied for 7th most overall in a Tournament game.

The Sun Devils held the Wildcats to 2 first quarter points, a season low in a quarter for an ASU opponent (3, Idaho, 12/28). It was also Arizona's low point total in a quarter (3, at California, 1/26). Arizona rebounded to outscore ASU 18-17 in the second quarter.

ASU's Kianna Ibis, her team's leading scorer on the season, hit double figure points for the 20th time this season. Sophia Elenga and Charnea Johnson-Chapman joined her in scoring 10+ points.

Wildcat Lucia Alonso (11th time this season) and JaLea Bennett (22nd time) scored 10+ points.
