PAC-12 STATEMENT CANCELLING ALL SPORTS FOR REMAINDER OF ACADEMIC YEAR & DECISION ON ORGANIZED TEAM ACTIVITIES

At a meeting of the Pac-12 CEO Group and Athletic Directors on Saturday, March 14, 2020, the Pac-12 made the decision to cancel all Pac-12 conference and non-conference sport competitions and Pac-12 championships through the end of the academic year, including spring sports that compete beyond the academic year. This decision follows both the Pac-12's earlier decision to suspend all sports until further notice, and the decision by the NCAA to cancel the Division I men's and women's 2020 NCAA basketball tournaments as well as all remaining winter and spring NCAA championships.

In addition, the Pac-12 Conference has made the decision to prohibit all organized team athletically-related activities until at least March 29, at which time it will revisit this decision.

WILL FANS WHO PURCHASED TICKETS TO THE 2020 PAC-12 MEN'S BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT AND/OR 2020 PAC-12 WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS CHAMPIONSHIPS, BE GRANTED REFUNDS?

As of Saturday, March 14, 2020, the Pac-12 has decided to cancel all Pac-12 Conference and non-conference sport competitions and Pac-12 championships through the end of the 2019-20 academic year, including spring sports that compete beyond the academic year.

This decision followed both the Pac-12's earlier decision to suspend all sports until further notice and the decision by the NCAA to cancel the Division I men's and women's 2020 NCAA basketball tournaments as well as all remaining winter and spring NCAA championships. The priority of the Pac-12 and its member universities is the health and well-being of all those who attend Pac-12 events.

In regards to refund information, the Pac-12 will grant refunds to all fans who purchased tickets to the 2020 Pac-12 Men's Basketball Tournament and 2020 Pac-12 Women's Gymnastics Championships.
