

2017 PAC-12 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Post-Game Notes

GAME 7: #2 Stanford (66), #7 Washington State (36)
Friday, March 3, 2017

Stanford moves on to Friday's 2nd semifinal game (8:30 p.m. PT). Stanford returns to the Tournament semifinals after falling in the quarterfinals for the first time last season. Stanford is now 62-0 all-time vs. WSU.

Cardinal Coach Tara VanDerveer won her 1,006th career game. 38 of those victories have come in Tournament games.

Stanford raced off to a 21-0 lead before WSU scored with 2:55 to go in the 1st quarter (0-11 from the field to that point.) All 5 Cardinal starters scored in the run.

Stanford's Karlie Samuelson had scored 0, 0 and 14 points in three prior Tournament games. She had 15 points at halftime tonight. It was her 22nd double-figure game of the season.

Samuelson's 6 3-point field goals made rank 3rd (tie) on the Tournament single game record list.

The Cardinal's Brittany McPhee had a career high 6 assists tonight (4, twice). She also reached double-digit scoring for the 20th time this season.

Stanford's 8 blocked shots were the 8th most (tie) in a Tournament game.

Ivana Kmetovska was the sole Cougar to reach double-figure scoring (10th time this season).
