PAC-12 BEACH VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The second-annual Pac-12 Beach Volleyball Championships are set to begin this week on the campus of the University of Arizona, Thursday-Sunday, April 27-29. Defending Pac-12 and NCAA Champion USC is the top seed in the team bracket, while Trojan pair Kelly Claes and Sara Hughes are the top-seed in the pairs tournament.

The championships opens with the team tournament on Thursday with the Trojans looking to continue to dominate, carrying a season-long 30-0 win streak. USC has not lost a head-to-head matchup since March 11 of last season, a span of 60 matches. The Trojans' top pair of Claes and Hughes won 100-consecutive matches before dropping their first match in almost two years. However, since then, the duo has won five straight.

All nine teams are seeded for the upcoming championship. UCLA is the No. 2 seed and is also the second-ranked team in the nation. Eighth-ranked ARIZONA is the No. 3 seed (eighth in the country), ARIZONA STATE is the No. 4 seed and STANFORD is the fifth seed. CALIFORNIA was tabbed the No. 6 seed in the team bracket, followed by No. 7 WASHINGTON and UTAH, which is making its inaugural appearance in the championship, is the eighth seed, with OREGON rounding out the tournament as the No. 9 seed.

The Wildcats were the runner-up in last year's team championship. Claes/Hughes defeated UA's twin sisters Madison and McKenna Witt in the pairs final to claim the pairs crown. Six of the nine teams in this week's tournament are ranked in DiG Magazine's top 20 and three are in the AVCA's top 15.

The tournaments will be played at the Arizona Beach Volleyball Courts. Completed in December 2013, the facility features five championship courts which contain 18-inch deep, beach quality, high-end sand. Located at the corner of Enke Drive and Campbell Avenue at Jimenez Field, the Arizona Beach Volleyball Courts are centrally located to campus as they are adjacent to McKale Center and directly south of Hillenbrand Aquatic Center. Admission is free to the event.

All 12 matches of the team championship will be televised live on Pac-12 Network with Anne Marie Anderson, Holly McPeak, Kevin Wong and Kevin Barnett calling all the action.

2016 PAC-12 BEACH VOLLEYBALL REVIEW

As the Pac-12 celebrated its storied past throughout the Centennial campaign, the Conference looked to the future while also adding to its history in 2015-16 with the addition of beach volleyball as the league's 23rd sponsored sport. In conjunction with the first year of sponsorship by the NCAA, the Pac-12 was among four other beach volleyball conferences in the sport's inaugural season along with the Atlantic Sun Conference, Big West Conference, Coastal Collegiate Athletic Association, and West Coast Conference.

The first-ever Pac-12 Beach Volleyball Championships were held at USC's Merle Norman Stadium in Los Angeles and dominated by the host Trojans as Pac-12 Pair of the Year Kelly Claes and Sara Hughes captured the pairs title and top seeded USC rolled to the team crown.

The Pac-12 set the tone on the sand as it sent a national-best three teams to the first-ever NCAA Championship in No. 2 seed USC, No. 4 seed UCLA and No. 6 seed ARIZONA. The Trojans won all four of their dual matches at the event, including two triumphs over No. 1 seed Florida State, en route to a 34-2 final record and the inaugural NCAA team championship, while UCLA finished third and ARIZONA sixth.

The Conference also led the nation with six AVCA All-America selections in USC's Claes and Hughes, ARIZONA's Madison Witt and McKenna Witt and UCLA's Megan McNamara and Nicole McNamara.
