THIS YEAR IN PAC-12 BEACH VOLLEYBALL

UCLA avenged its Pac-12 Championship loss going 4-0 at the NCAA Championship and upsetting top-seeded USC in an all-Pac-12 final, 3-0, to win back-to-back beach volleyball national titles. In the four years of the NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship, USC (2016, 2017) and the Bruins are the only two teams to have ever claimed the trophy.

The top seed in the NCAA Championship for the second time in the history of the event, the Trojans were upset in the first dual but dominated in the elimination bracket to get to the championship bout before falling to the second-seeded Bruins. That was a week after USC defeated top-seeded and then-top ranked UCLA twice at the Pac-12 Championship, 3-2. The Trojans knocked off the defending Conference champion Bruins, hosting the league tournament for the second time at Norman Merle Stadium.

The Bruins and the Trojans were the Nos. 1 and 2 teams, respectively, in the AVCA Coaches poll all season except the week of April 29, heading into the NCAA Championship where USC briefly took over the top spot and UCLA was at No. 2. After earning its first-ever top-10 national ranking in the national coaches poll, No. 11 CALIFORNIA is in the final polling for the second-straight year, registering multiple wins over top-10 programs for the first time this season, while No. 20 ARIZONA STATE entered the poll for the first time ever after posting a record number of team wins this year. No. 13 ARIZONA is in the final top 15 for the fourth-consecutive year.

USC's Anna Collier was voted the AVCA National Coach of the Year for the second time in her career and the first time since 2014. Four pairs and nine individuals from the Conference received national recognition, including UCLA's pairs of Megan and Nicole McNamara, and Lily Justine and Sarah Sponcil, and USC's duos of Abril Bustamante and Tina Graudina, and Terese Cannon and Sammy Slater. Cal's Mima Mirkovic was an honorable mention All-American.

USC's Graudina was tabbed the Pac-12 Player of the Year, as voted on by the league's coaches, and the duo of Bustamante and Graudina were voted the Pac-12 Pair of the Year. Collier was voted the Pac-12 Coach of the Year for the first time, while CALIFORNIA's Jordan Polo was selected the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year, the first Golden Bear to earn the honor. The McNamara's were also tabbed All-Pac-12 while USC freshman Mollie Ebertin earned a spot on the All-Freshman team. The full list of league honorees is on page 2.

2019 PAC-12 BEACH VOLLEYBALL REVIEW

LOS ANGELES - The USC Trojans upset top-seeded and top-ranked UCLA for the second time in two days, winning the championship dual, 3-2, on Saturday to reclaim the Pac-12 Beach Volleyball Championship title at Norman Merle Stadium on its own campus. It marks the third time in the four-year history of the championship the Trojans have claimed the crown.

The second-ranked team in the country, the Trojans went 4-0 over the three days of the championship to claim the league trophy. USC also won the Pac-12 title in 2016 and 2017, winning on its home court in the first year of the event. It was the third-straight year USC and UCLA met in the championship dual for the crown. Six of the last seven meetings between the teams in the Pac-12 Championship, 3-2, with the Trojans taking a 4-3 lead in the championship series.

UCLA took a 2-0 lead after claiming points at the No. 4 and No. 5 courts. The Bruins' No. 4 pair of Lea Monkhouse and Savvy Simo battled to the wire in both sets against USC's Joy Dennis and Maja Kaiser, 23-21, 26-24. The Trojans responded with wins at No. 1 and No. 3 to even the dual score as the No. 2 pairs of Lily Justine and Sarah Sponcil of UCLA and Terese Cannon and Sammy Slater of USC were headed into the third set tied at 1-1. UCLA went up 10-7 in that final frame, but USC responded with an 8-2 run to win the set, match, dual and title, 15-12.

The day opened with the Bruins taking a decisive 3-0 decision over California in the contender's bracket final to get into the championship final. With the matches being played to decision all week, Carey/Sparks at No. 4 and Monkhouse/Simo at No. 5 gave the Bruins a 2-0 lead. UCLA's top pair of Megan and Nicole McNamara closed out with a commanding 21-9, 21-13 win to post the team's third point and win.
